Chartered in 1896, Adelphi University was the first private, coeducational institution of higher education for the liberal arts and sciences on Long Island. Through its eight schools and colleges—the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Nursing and Public Health, the Gordon F. Derner Institute of Advanced Psychological Studies, the Honors College, the Robert B. Willumstad School of Business, the Ruth S. Armon School of Education, the School of Social Work and University College—Adelphi offers undergraduate and graduate degrees, as well as professional certificates and educational programs for adults. Adelphi University currently enrolls nearly 8,000 students from 35 states and 42 foreign countries. With its main campus in Garden City and off-campus centers in Manhattan, Poughkeepsie and Suffolk County, the University maintains a commitment to liberal studies in tandem with rigorous professional preparation and active citizenship.

The President’s Gala supports Adelphi University’s ability to remain competitive in attracting the brightest and most qualified students. The University awards more than $50 million annually in the form of scholarships and institutional aid.
